- 15.4.3 recover from Supplier any costs incurred by Civica in obtaining substitute goods and/or services from a third party;

- 15.4.4 where Civica has paid in advance for Services that have not been provided by Supplier and/or Goods which have not been delivered by Supplier, to have such sums refunded by Supplier; and
- 15.4.5 claim damages for any additional costs, loss or expenses incurred by Civica which are in any way attributable to Supplier's failure to meet such dates.
- 15.5 Upon expiration or termination of the Contract for any reason Supplier shall promptly re-deliver to Civica all Materials and other materials furnished to Supplier by Civica and all copies made by Supplier.
- 15.6 The accrued rights and remedies of the parties as at termination shall not be affected, including the right to claim damages in respect of any breach of the Contract which existed at or before the date of termination.
- 15.7 Clauses which expressly or by implication have effect after termination shall continue in full force and effect.
- 16. General
- 16.1 Any notice or other communication required to be given to a party under or in connection with the Contract shall be in writing and shall be delivered to the other party personally or sent by prepaid first-class post, or by commercial courier, at its registered office (if a company) or (in any other case) its principal place of business. In the case of Civica notices they shall be addressed for the attention of Purchasing Director with a copy to waterlooreception@civica.co.uk.
- 16.1.1 Any notice or communication shall be deemed to have been duly received if delivered personally, when left at the address referred to above or, if sent by prepaid first-class post or recorded delivery, at 9.00 am on the second business day after posting, or if delivered by commercial courier, on the date and at the time that the courier's delivery receipt is signed.
- 16.1.2 For the purposes of this clause, "writing" shall not include e-mails and for the avoidance of doubt notice given under the Contract shall not be validly served if sent by e-mail.
- 16.2 The Contract constitutes the whole agreement between the parties and supersedes all previous agreements between the parties relating to its subject matter. Each party acknowledges that, in entering into the Contract, it has not relied on, and shall have no right or remedy in respect of, any statement, representation, assurance or warranty (whether made negligently or innocently) other than as expressly set out in the Contract. Nothing in this clause shall limit or exclude any liability for fraud or for fraudulent misrepresentation.
- 16.3 No variation of the Contract shall be binding unless it is in writing and signed by each of the parties (or their duly authorised representatives).
- 16.4 No failure or delay in exercising any remedy or right under a Contract will operate as a waiver of it, nor will any single or partial exercise of it preclude any further exercise or the exercise of any remedy or right under a Contract or otherwise.
- 16.5 Neither party may assign the benefit of the Contract(s) nor any interest except with the prior written consent of the other, save that Civica may assign the Contract(s) at any time to any member of the Civica Group.
- 16.6 The provisions of the Contract shall be severable in the event that any of its provisions are held by a court of competent jurisdiction or other applicable authority to be invalid, void or otherwise unenforceable, and the remaining provisions shall remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law. However, if the severed provision is essential and material to the rights or benefits received by either party, the parties shall use their best efforts to negotiate, in good faith, a substitute, valid and enforceable provision or agreement which most nearly effects their intent in entering into the Contract.
- 16.7 The Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 is excluded, by the agreement of all the parties to the Contract, from applying to the Contract to the maximum extent permitted by law. No term of the Contract is enforceable by any person who is not a party to it, whether in accordance with such Act or otherwise. This clause shall prevail in the event of any conflict between it and anything else in the Contract.

- 16.8 Nothing in the Contract is intended to, or shall be deemed to, constitute a partnership or joint venture of any kind between any of the parties, nor constitute any party the agent of another party for any purpose. No party shall have authority to act as agent for, or to bind, the other party in any way.
- 16.9 Neither party will be liable to the other for any failure or delay or for the consequences of any failure or delay in performance of the Contract if it is due to a force majeure event: any event beyond the reasonable control of a party to this Contract including, without limitation, acts of God, war, industrial disputes, protests, fire, flood, storm, tempest, explosion, an act of terrorism, epidemic, pandemic, act of government authorities and national emergencies. The party subject to such event shall, as soon as practicable, give notice of the event to the other party, such notice to include a reasonable forecast of the duration of the force majeure event. If such delay or failure prevents Supplier from supplying the Goods and/or Services for at least 2 weeks, Civica shall be entitled to terminate the Contract(s) with immediate effect by giving written notice to Supplier.
- 16.10 All disputes arising out of or under the Contract that are not resolved by the Supplier's contract manager and Civica's contract manager shall be escalated internally by both parties for resolution. Second level escalation is to the party's contract manager's manager. Then the third level is to that manager's manager. If the parties fail to settle the dispute within 30 days of the third level escalation, or such longer period as the parties may agree, the dispute may be referred to the English courts.
- 16.11 Subject to clause 16.10, the Contract, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims), shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, English law, and the parties irrevocably submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England.
