

Complaints Case Management

Manage customer feedback more efficiently to deliver better outcomes

Today's customers expect ever increasing levels of service, the capability to reach your organization to express their views through preferred channels and for an effective response

Civica Complaints Management is designed to help you capture and manage customer feedback across multiple channels – including web, phone, email and social media.

Powered by the iCasework platform, information can flow to the relevant departments across your organisation for processing. Intelligent automation to help you deliver the right outcomes in a consistent and timely way.

"Based on an extensive time and motion study we're seeing a 50% reduction in complaints service admin - which is huge!"
